WATER NEAR MARSHALL MILLS.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury-Beath of Mr. Martin Harnish O.ber Mauchester News-

MANUFESTER I THESE BIGHNOND TIMES, 111 1971). STEET HEST IS BLOCK.

The dead body of Mrs. Fannie Tony was found shortly after 9 o clock yesterday morning in the creek just below the Marshall cotton mills. The remains were dis-covered by Walchman James Carter, of the Richmond Standard Spike M.I's. Mr. Carter no ified the police, and the body was removed to the Lank by Officer Alex. Wright and Mr. J. H. D. Johnson.

Coroner Brodnax was notified of the ratery and was soon on the spot, but o one knew the identity of the dead oman until the arrival of Mr. E. W. unth, who said she was a sister of his ife, and that her name was Mrs. Funda Cone.

HER MIND IMPAIRED.

During last December she suffered a great deal with crysheins. It anected her brain and caused her to lose her mind. She was then taken to the home of her daughter. Mrs. Harry Worrell, who nives about seven miles in the contry, with the nope that the change would do her good.

She came to the city yesterday morning with her son-in-law to yist her daughter.

when the Coroner arrived on the scene

When the Coroner arrived on the scene he concluded to hold an inquest over the remains. High Cons able George W. Brooks then summoned the following gentlemen to act on the fury:
Measts R. A. Talley, Frank Armistend.
C. J. Dobbins, P. C. Starke, G. W. Gooding, and R. Hawks.

After eliciting all the information about the tragedy the jury brought in the verdict that the deceased came to her Geath by falling over the waste-way of the arma, and site died from the injuries received at the time.

The remains were removed to the homo of her sister Mrs. W. E. Smith at No. 21 east Eleventh street. The funeral will ture place from this number to-dity at 2 o'clock. Rev. George H. McFaden, pastor of the Fif h S reet Methodist church, will conduct the services.

Mr. Martin Harnish died at his home in hesterfield county Wednesday evening Chesterifield county wednesses, etchies at 8:30 octock. He was in the eightleth year of his age.

The detrased was born in Lancaster, Pa., on the 18th of April, 18th, For the mast twenty-six years he has lived in Manchester and chesterifield county. A portion of this time he was a merchant of this city and later was engaged in the real estate business. For the past few years of his life he has taken a great interest in horifoulture, and has been one of the greatest promoters of the fruit industry in Chesterfield county.

He was an anassuming old gentleman and had won the respect and confidence of all with whom he came in contact. He was the father of Mr. Henry furnish, one of the best-known clizens of Chesterfield, and also leaves several grand and great grandchildren.

The funeral will take place from his late residence this afternoon at two octock. Rev. Charles N. Van Honten will cenduct the services. The interment will be made in Maury cometery.

The sub-committee appointed by the joint meeting of the Board of Health and Fire Commissioners, met vesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. There were present for Lewrence Ingram and Messrs. A. D. Shotwell, R. L. Patram and Matthew Morton. At the meeting of the joint committee these gentlemen were instructed to visit the plant of the Standard Oil Company and learn if the gesoline tanks recently placed in these works were a menace to the health and property of the citizens of this community. For several evenings of late a horrible stench has been howering over the city. At the last meeting of the Council Mr. Green called attention to the fact, and asked that the Foard of Health and the Fire Commissioners should look into the matter. From his resolution presented they were charged to pay estecial attention to the gasoline tank owned by the Standard Dil peop's. THE STENCH COMMITTEE.
